D. O. No. 153 C.S. Rd Mysore

Dated Bangalore, 6th October 1949.

68 CB 6.10.49

Dear Sir,

With reference to your D.O. letter No.2303/C.B. dated 5-10-1949 regarding the request of the Mysore Provincial Co-operative Institute, Bangalore to name the Co-operators' Home at Mysore as "Sri Narasimharaja Sahakara Bhavana" and also requesting His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore to preside over the Silver Jubilee celebrations of the Institute, I send herewith a detailed report on the working of the Institute:

The Provincial Co-operative Institute was organised in September 1924. It has also branches in all the District Headquarters. It undertakes publication of pamphlets, leaflets, Journals and Books. It also arranges public lectures including magic lantern demonstrations. It also holds periodical Co-operative Conferences. It is now running a Weekly Journal called "Sahakara Patrike" mainly devoted to the working of Co-operative Movement in Mysore State. The Institute which is also maintaining a Library, conducts every year Co-operative Training Classes. So far, 300 candidates have been trained successfully on the principles and practice of Co-operation, Accountancy and Banking.

The Institute also holds Annual Conferences. The last Conference that was held recently in Shimoga was the 35th Conference under the presidentship of the Hon'ble Sri M.P. Patil, B.A., LL.B., Minister for Agriculture and Forests, Government of Bombay. A few of these conferences were declared open by His late Highness the Yuvaraja of Mysore. Resolutions passed at these Conferences are generally submitted to Government through the Registrar.

Sectional Conferences are also held like the All Mysore

Housebuilding Co-operative Societies' Conference and the Consumers' Co-operative Societies' Conference.

The membership of the Institute consists of the following classes:

1. Life Members 2. Associate Members and 3. Affiliated Societies.

There are at present 19 Life members, 160 Associate Members and 691 Affiliated Societies.

The Institute conducted the Fourth All India Co-operative Conference in 1937 and the Eighth All India Co-operative Conference in 1949 at Bangalore.

A copy of the Bye-laws of the Co-operative Institute is also sent for your information.

The Institute also celebrates every year the International Co-operators day.

In order to encourage the activities of the Institute, the Government have sanctioned an annual sub-vention of nearly Rs.5,000/- for the last three years.

The Institute has been doing very useful service and richly deserves the honour of inviting His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore to preside over the Silver Jubilee function.

Co-operators' Home.

In order to provide accommodation every year to the delegates of the Conference at Mysore, the Government were pleased to grant freely a site for the Institute and the foundation stone of the Co-operators' Home was laid by His Highness the late Yuvaraja of Mysore on 22nd March 1933 and the building is completed at a cost of Rs.65,646-10-8, the amount being met from the contributions received from Co-operative Societies.

The Institute has resolved to commemorate in a befitting manner the noble services rendered by His Highness the late Yuvaraja of Mysore by naming the Home as "Sri Narasimharaja Sahakara Bhavana". His Highness the Maharaja has been graciously pleased to approve of this proposal as intimated to the Institute in Private Secretary's letter No.P.H. 177/46-47 dated 17th January 1949. It is befitting that the name of His late Highness Sir Sri Kantirava Narasimharaja Wadiyar Bahadur should be associated with the Co-operators' Home constructed at Mysore.]

I regret, I could not acknowledge your letter earlier as I was away from the Headquarters.

Yours sincerely,

T. Rangaswamy

Sri K. Srinivasan, B.Sc.,
Chief Secretary to Government of Mysore, Bangalore.

My dear Sir,

I am desired to forward herewith copy of a letter dated the 6th instant, from the President, The Mysore Provincial Co-operative Institute, Bangalore, requesting that His Highness may be graciously pleased to grace the occasion on the naming ceremony of the Co-operators' Home at Mysore and to declare it as "Sri Narasimharaja Sahakara Bhavana" and also to preside over the Silver Jubilee function of the Institute sometime during the last week of September or early in October 1949, and to request you kindly to let me the advice I may tender His Highness in the matter.

With respectful regards,

Yours sincerely,

THE MYSORE PROVINCIAL CO-OPERATIVE INSTITUTE

President:
Sri.S.Srinivas, F.R.H.S.

Bangalore City,
6th August 1949.

No.138.

Dear Mr. Safi Darashah,

Permit me to bring to your kind notice that Provincial Co-operative Council of the Mysore Provincial Co-operative Institute, a Central organisation representing the Co-operative movement in the State, resolved at its meeting held on 31-7-49 that His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore be requested, to be graciously pleased to grace the occasion on the naming ceremony of the Co-operators' Home at Mysore and to declare it as "Sri Narasimharaja Sahakara Bhavana" and to preside over the Silver Jubilee function of the Institute.

In this connection I may be permitted to state that the Co-operative Movement in the State was privileged to have the inspiring guidance continuously for three decades of late Sir Sri Kantirava Narasimharaja Wadiyar Bahadur, the illustrious father of our beloved Maharaja and His late Highness's connection with the movement was of a long and intimate nature. The Provincial Conferences were declared open by His late Highness and two were presided over by him. His late Highness was pleased to institute prizes for the best working Co-operative Institutions. In short, he was a great patron and a staunch supporter of the movement in the State.

The Mysore Provincial Co-operative Institute resolved to commemorate in a befitting manner, the great and noble services rendered by His late Highness to the cause of Co-operation and to construct a Co-operators' Home at Mysore in order to provide accommodation for holding Co-operative meetings and Conferences and for lodgings of delegates attending these meetings and to serve as a centre of Co-operative activity. The Institute further decided to name it as Sri Narasimharaja Sahakara Bhavana as its humble tribute to late His Highness the Yuvaraja of revered memory. His Highness the Maharaja has been graciously pleased to approve of the proposal to name the building after His late Highness the Yuvaraja Sir Sri Kantirava Narasimharaja Wadiyar Bahadur as intimated in the letter of the Private Secretary, No.PH.177/46-47 dated 17th January 1947.

The Mysore Provincial Co-operative Institute has also resolved to celebrate the Silver Jubilee of the Institute during the last week of September or during October 1949 and also resolved that His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore be requested to be graciously pleased to grace the occasion in presiding over the Silver Jubilee function of the Institute.

The Mysore Provincial Co-operative Institute, the Central Organisation representing the Co-operative movement in the State, has been registered on 27th September 1924. The main objects of the Institute are.-

1) to organise, educate and help Co-operative Societies and to provide for regular and efficient supervision over them;

2) to voice the views of the Co-operators in all questions of policy which may arise whether in Government, in the Press or elsewhere.

3) to publish pamphlets, leaflets, journals, and books and to distribute them free or at a moderate cost.

4) to hold periodically Co-operative Conferences in selected centres and carry on propaganda work in other ways also.

5) to ogranise Co-operative Training Classes for the benefit of Office bearers and employees of Co-operative Societies and other persons interested in Co-operation.

6) generally to do all such other acts as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of any or all of the above objects.

It is the earnest desire of the Provincial Co-operative Council of the Institute that His Highness the Maharaja may graciously be pleased to grace the occasion on the naming ceremony of the Co-operators' Home at Mysore and declare it as "Sri Narasimharaja Sahakara Bhavana" and to preside over the Silver Jubilee function of the Institute.

The functions may come off any day in September or October 1949 that suits the convenience of His Highness.

The President of the Mysore Provincial Co-operative Institute is desired by the Provincial Co-operative Council to place this request personally before His Highness and to seek His Highness's permission to arrange for the function.

It is proposed to hold the Provincial Co-operative Conference this time at Mysore during the 1st week of October. If it is not inconvenient to His Highness the function may be fixed to take place in the morning either on the 2nd or 3rd of October 1949 immediately after Dasara festivities.

May I therefore request you to be so good as to arrange for an interview with His Highness the Maharaja for the purpose and oblige.

I seek your pardon for this long letter.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

Sd. S. Srinivas.

President.

Sri Safi Darashah, B.A.,
Private Secretary to H.H.the Maharaja of Mysore,
